British Library Direct Plus

The latest addition to our range of subscription services, British Library Direct Plus allows you to build your own library of searchable databases and access them all from one central interface. As well as searching British Library holdings, Google Scholar and Pubmed Central as standard, subscribers can also add their own free or subscription resources, including:

- Subscription databases
- E-journals
- Websites

British Library Direct Plus also includes a suite of advanced management tools that give administrators the power to control how the service is used. You can set up daily, weekly or monthly alerts, save references to a Marked List, export to reference management tools, charge full text purchases to a British Library account or a credit card and set the monthly spending budgets of end users. For more information or a trial, please visit www.bl.uk/articles and select British Library Direct Plus from the Products and Services area.

Turning the Pages Toolkit 2.0.

"The sensation of actually leafing through a rare volume is uncannily real"

Donald A.B Lindberg, Director of the National Library of Medicine.

Developed in association with The British Library for the specific purpose of bringing their 'treasures' to life on the Internet, Turning the Pages has quickly become one of the most popular resources in The British Library. With Turning the Pages 2.0, you can now license the software to make your own rare collections accessible to the World through the web. For more information please visit www.bl.uk/articles and select Turning the Pages from the Products and Services area.
