2. Gift Aid

If you are a UK taxpayer the British Library can reclaim tax against your donation, currently equivalent to an extra 28p for every £1 you give. If you are a higher-rate taxpayer, your tax bill can also be reduced. For Gift Aid to apply, you must pay at least as much income tax and/or capital gains tax as we reclaim on your donations in any given tax year.

I would like the British Library to reclaim tax on all gifts I have made since April 2000, and until I notify you otherwise

In accordance with the 1998 Data Protection Act, the British Library may use your details for educational and charitable purposes. We will not share your details with other organisations. If you would prefer not to receive this information, please tick this box

The Direct Debit Guarantee

- This Guarantee is offered by all Banks and Building Societies that take part in the Direct Debit Scheme. The efficiency and security of the Scheme is monitored and protected by your own Bank or Building Society
- If the amounts to be paid or the payment dates change the British Library will notify you
- 10 working days in advance of your account being debited or as otherwise agreed
- If an error is made by the British Library or your Bank or Building Society, you are guaranteed a full and immediate refund from your branch of the amount paid
- You can cancel a Direct Debit at any time by writing to your Bank or Building Society. Please also send a copy of your letter to us.
